As a member of the Piedmont Association of Home Inspectors I understand that the primary goals of the association are to act as a support group and provide a continuing education platform. As a member I promise to:

1. Only perform home inspections in states where I hold an active license to do so.
2. Agree to meet the standards of practice and code of ethics of the applicable state and any other association in which I hold membership.
3. Conduct myself in a professional and ethical manner while acting as a home inspector.
4. Be supportive of and towards other members of PAHI.
5. Not misrepresent my qualifications, experience, licenses, certifications, etc.
6. Not act in a manner that could be construed as degrading, derogatory, or destructive to the Piedmont Association of Home Inspectors, its members, or the home inspection profession.
